

Stage D Learning Objectives

Writing

- I can talk about, plan and say what I will write.
- I can write stories, poems and different types of non-fiction.
- I can write like an author when describing characters and settings.
- I can write from different points of view.
- I can talk about how to edit and improve my writing.
- I can re-read my writing and correct my spelling and punctuation mistakes.
- I make sure I start a new paragraph when I talk about something different.
- Use connectives like meanwhile, however and yet.
- I don't repeat the same words several times.
- Use better word choices to impress the reader e.g shuffled instead of walked.
- Begin to use similes (he laughed like a wild hyena) and metaphors (she is a star).
- Use fronted adverbials at the start of a sentence e.g later that day, I went for a jog.
- I can use noun phrases to describe things e.g I've seen the only remaining dinosaur.

- Write complex sentences with words like when, if, although and whilst in.
- Use speech marks correctly (and other pieces of punctuation within speech marks).
- Use apostrophes when it belongs to lots of people e.g the class' work.
